ISSUES & DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH
HEALTH ISSUES/GREEN
	1/11/15	5:30AM	25:00
PERSPECTIVES: Dr. Ian Smith is a physician and contributor to the show The Doctors and many others. In The Super Shred, Smith explains his four-week super-charged program that shares the same principles—meal spacing, snacking, meal replacement, and diet confusion—as SHRED—with twice the intensity and a shorter quick-acting plan. It can be used on its own or in conjunction with SHRED. His system absolutes: A diet should not be confusing, expensive or make you feel as if you're failed if you make a mistake. The SHRED system never leaves you hungry. It is a new way to lose weight, stay thin and feel great about your mind, body and spirit.
	1/18/15	5:30AM	25:00
PERSPECTIVES: Schiavocampo is an ABC News/Good Morning America correspondent who lost 90 pounds, finally gaining control of her eating. She was a secret binge eater who hated exercise. All of that has changed and she tells her inspirational story in THINspired. She tried every diet on the planet, suffered a debilitating eating disorder, joined a bizarre food cult, and took dangerous pills, worked out for insane amounts of time—and still tipped the scales at nearly 230 pounds. But more than reaching a healthy weight, Mara wanted peace and freedom from the constant mental torment brought on by food. And that's what she did.
